FARMVILLE.

Some people in our town were not prepared for the recent cold snap, and some people never are. Of the number there are tho e who can't get ready, but there are others who prefer beer to bright blazes on the hearth stone, convivial ty down town to comforts at home, idleness to independence. For the latter class there is no hope, but for the former there should always be well directed help. Everybody might be comfortable in the country, that is, if they ever work, and yet even in the country people are careless of their wood piles. What a brute the man is who complains of late breakfast when he has failed to provide dry wood for the cook stove. The good wife should remain in bed until the stove is burning brightly.

And still the tobacco comes rolling in and still the prices go rolling high. Queen 'weed' this. It might be called the queen of weeds as it always commands obeisance, courtesy and the ready cash.

The people of our town and community are resenting with warmth and indignation the effort of Richmond to lay violent hands on Hampden Sidney. They look upon it as an expression of greed and grab which is as merciless as it is selfish. There was a ringing editorial on the subject in a recent issue of the Herald.

The base ball fever is at fever heat among the Hampden Sidney students this early in the season. The schedule of games has been announced and nothing remains but to harden and toughen for the fray. What would our forefathers have said and done if it had been given out that students would leave college during study hours to "play ball?" The order would have been promptly issued, "young man stay at your post and play during playtime." But times change and men change with them. Maybe the boys in these days of telephone and wireless telegraphy learn faster than the boys did in the olden day, and can afford to spend time as well as money on the "diamond." One thing is certain, there s ould be a "sound mind in a sound body," and if athletics are necessary to this they should be encouraged.

Capt. Hunt, Farmville's accomplished artist, has been over to the Green Bay neighborhood taking some pictures which are to be used at Jamestown Exposition, as the Prince Edward is not to be left entirely out of the show. Thanks to the public spirited and progressive people of this live business centre. By the near Centennial the spirit may have spread all over the country. But alas, many of us will not live to hear to feel its thrill.

Mrs. Wor and Mrs. Chick, who have been conducting the Westover have dissolved partnership. It was a union of splendid house-keeping forces, Virginia house keepers who knew how to "keep hotel."

Some one remarked to me, the other afternoon were perceptibly longer but that the mornings did'nt seem to be. The trouble was that the mornings were spent in bed while in the afternoons my friend is wide awake.

A lady friend was congratulating herself on a recent snowy, cold day that her hens had layed fourteen eggs, and this reminded me to ask to the annual profit from a hen, and the reply was "about a dollar."

Way not then, keep 1000 hens and quit agonizing over tobacco. One live man could care for 1000 and at the same time raise enough to feed them on.

Mid-winter commencement exercises at the Normal were of the most interesting character. Summer addresses, essays and songs were of high order of excellence and the "sweet girl graduates" have gone out into the larger work full with the inspiration of memorable occasion to stimulate their endeavors. This will be the last of February commencements, June having been the time agreed on for receiving all diplomas given by the school.

Farmville lost a most useful and exemplary business man in the death of Mr. Goodrich Overton.

Miss Watkins, of the University of Chicago, has been selected as an assistant of Miss Snow of the No mal faculty, and is boarding at Mrs. Berkley's.

Mr. B. M. Cox, the able and efficient Steward of that institution will soon move into his new residence, and the old Richardson house in which he has lived for a number of years will be taken down to give more room in the Normal grounds.

The Methodist congregation united with the Presbyterians in the morning services of last Sunday.

As the time approaches for hanging the poor negroes, who murdered that good man, the venerable Mr. Grubb, some people would be glad to move out of town until it is over.

Another good ice spell and I presume all our houses are filled.

Prof Russell, one of the State school inspectors whose home is here is constantly on duty and is rendering good and efficient service.

Dr. Milledge, of the Normal Faculty delivered an interesting lecture on Missions in the Auditorium of the school on last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Lonlie Morton has gone to Louisville to attend the marriage of her brother, Mr. Robt. Morton.

Mrs. R E Paulette, who visited in the family of Mr. J L. Richardson, has returned to Hampden Sidney where she lives with her sister Mrs J. M. Venable. Mrs. Wesley Gilliam.

The profits from the sale of liquor at our dispensary for the past year amounted to more than $20,000.

The last reports of our banks are the best. Some one remarked in my presence that money on call in New York would soon reach 20 per cent and that our local banks were preparing to take advantage of the squeeze and play for Russell Sage act on them. I hope they can New York has been playing the "grab all game" long enough.

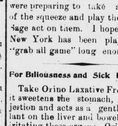
Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.



Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon to see children afflicted with it. Women suffer more from it than men. Many times doubt the cause of it, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control its actions. It is often attended with bed-wetting, dragged upon in cases of difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. Many Interesting Reports Made of Her People.

REMINISCENT.

Long ago when our great uncles and aunts Were young, and unsed, perhaps, wore knee pants,

A party went to Willis' mountain,
Expecting, who knows, but to find a fountain
A fountain of fu to help gay lives prolong
For gay they were, with jest and merry song
One gent there was, who with them came,
Who for his wit had gained a lofty name.
When asked a verse for this occasion,
(Indeed he needed not persuasion)
"My sweetheart is about the size a Billin D. Jone's daughter Lina."
Now readers, this story, which I have related
Is, of course, very antiquated,
But it is true, would you know who I am?
Why I am.

LITTLE SAM, of Buckingham.

Buckingham.

The first case tried in the Circuit court here last week was that against Capt. Bob Watkins for shooting Mr. Robt. Evans near Arvonia and Watkins got five years in the penitentiary. Mr. Moon warned the jurors not to be bi ed by race prejudice, and to remember that each one of them must appear before the judgment bar of God, and be tried for the deeds done in the body. But shooting has become so common an occurrence that people are determined to stamp it out. Stringent laws well executed against carrying fire arms, coupled with this determination of the people at large to do away with this now crying shame in our county will eradicate it from our midst.

At the meeting of the school board held here on the 12th. on-ecker from each school district was chosen to get up the exhibit for Jamestown as follows:

James River—Miss Augusta Twyman, Slate River—Rev. Mr. Humphries, Curdsville—Miss Annie Page Jones, Marshall—Miss Lila Duval, Maysville—Mrs. S. B. Bondurant, Francisco—Miss Edith Pollard. Some time soon Mr. Kent and school Inspector Thomas, are expected to come and formulate plans and organize this committee of teachers; as the funds will be provided with which to carry out such plans as are likely to be adopted and in the meantime each member of this committee will be actively at work, getting material and saying plans so as not to fail in making Buckingham's exhibit the equal of any county in Virginia. Mr. A. C. Garnett is chairman of the citizens' committee, which will have in charge the mineral and agricultural exhibit.

I failed to mention in its proper place the trial before the circuit court of the now celebrated case of Drake vs Dean, which was decided in favor of the defendan. This was a suit for damages for alleged defamation of character. The plaintiff, Mrs Rolfe Drake proved a poor witness in her own behalf, while defendant, Dean, with calmness and self possession answered the questions propounded to him and displayed considerable familiarity with the laws of evidence. The personnel of this jury was far above the average and they only deliberated after the case was given them a few minutes Another case tried involved a nice point in land. This was A. W. Moore vs Moss & Grigg for the sum of $95 as rent of a store house at Dillwyn The defendant firm had rented this property from the White and Company for which they had paid the rent in advance for the year, but three months and twenty-five days before the lease expired the property was sold by decree of court, and Moore, the plaintiff became the purchaser. And he claimed, and sued for the rent as $25 a month, or at the same rate which the property had been rented from the White Hall Co. Judge Gordon gave judgment for the rent, for this length of time, but only at the rate of $16 66 a month, as this was the rate of rent at which the plaintiff rented the property to the defendants for the ensuing year.

There was a good lot of mules for sale the first day of court, but owing to the scarcity of hands to work mules and the scarcity and high price of food for them, but few if any sales were made.

Mr. Andrew Banton qualified as guardian for the minor children left by the death of Mr. Powhatan Banton.

Cleveland Banton, who was ill with pneumonia is much better.

Mr. M C. Elcan and son George H. were both out at court after having been confined at their home so long.

Mr. L. D. Jones, Sr. was also out at court though the wounds on his body which were inflicted by a pet deer, have not entirely healed.

Farmers and their wives who are interested in the exhibit of our products at Jamestown will please meet at the C. H. on March 11th and bring samples of products of the farm. A prize of $10 is to be paid for the best 5 lb sample of tobacco; $5 for the 2nd best; $3 for 3rd and $2 for the 4th best sample of leaf.

A literary man from the empire state is here and said to be writing a history of the country. Wonder if he will write of the time when we lived in district No 1 and under military rule?

Trapping in Buckingham Co.

Humphrey, the young son of Mr. Thomas Steger, of the Courthouse neighborhood has become a very successful trapper and has gladdened the hearts of poultry raisers and housewives generally by ridding our neighborhood of some scores of animals that prey on poultry, and in addition to minks, weasels, musk rats, he has captured a good many coons and foxes; one day last week he caught at Mrs. Samuel Morris' at the foot of Willis Mountain, the largest red fox ever seen about these parts; Mr. Steger has about one hundred traps setting on the various branches and creeks tributary to the Willis River between Arcanum and Hubard's bridge, and his earnings this winter have been about one hundred dollars a month from the sale of these valuable skins, he realized as high as $5.50 for one large black mink; Willis river used to abound in beavers, but these seem to have all gone as he has seen no trace of them. The young man is doing a public service and he is a welcome visitor to the homesteads up and down these water courses.

Mr. R. H. Payne, who has one of the best equipped farms and homes in this neighborhood, has become restless again, and gone back to his old time work in the lumber business; this time in the neighborhood of Roanok ; the muscle of axes, the buzz of the circular saw seem to have a charm for him, for he has worked at them from Richmond to San Francisco during the past 30 years, but he is the same good christian gentleman, go wherever he may.

Hent Creek.

We are having some very fine weather now, notwithstanding the ice and mud.

Some of our farmers will ship their tobacco, as the roads are too bad to haul it.

Our community was shocked on Friday, when the news spread that Mrs. Lucinda Thornhill had passed to her re ard. She had not been very well for some time, Dr Watts had been called to see her, but no one dreamed that the end was so near. She was in her 82nd year, and had been a pious christian woman all her life. She was universally popular and beloved by all who knew her, both white and colored. There was a large crowd present to witness the interment which took place at 2 o'clock on Sunday the 17th. She was placed by the side of her husband, the late Albert Thornhill. Rev. Mr. Allison conducted the services. She leaves six children to mourn their loss, namely Dr. L. R, Charley and A. B. Thornhill of Appomattox, Mr. Thomas Thornhill, of Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. D. A. Christian, of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. E. E James, of Greenville, S. C. They have the sympathy of a host of friends in his great bereavement, but they have only to remember that she has only gone before and is now reaping the reward of the faithful.

Mr. Alonza Wills is improving at this time. Mr. John Booker is also thought to be out of danger.

Miss Tempie Wells, of Lynchburg is visiting her parents this week.

Mr. Willis Woody, of Buckingham agent several days at the hospitable home of Mr. J. H. Wood last week.

The Bent Creek school is progressing nicely with Mrs. N. L Turner as teacher. Her old patrons are glad to have her teach for them again.

As I have seen anything from this neighborhood for a long time, I thought a few items might be of interest to some.

Mr. Tom Wright, who bought the old An erson homestead, is a wide-awake farmer. He has a large family and has made quite an addition to our social circle.

Mr. Banks, who bought Mr. A. C. Sone's house has not moved yet.

Mr. Crawford Scruggs is contemplating ordering an outfit for the stave business and it is reported that Mr. Ed Owen & Bro. will move their saw mill to this neighborhood. So we have the prospect of quite a boom.

Mr S. E. Anderson is nicely fixed in his pretty new house and has still the building fever—has added a large stable, h n house, ice house and cow shed.

Little Jim Neighbors has just recovered from an attack, which Dr. Whitehead pronounced scarlet fever and gave our people quite a scare.

Miss Mabel Harris, our most excellent teacher, was called suddenly to the bed side of her brother, who is very ill at his home at Gladstone

OBITUARY.

Miss Rosa Bayard, daughter of Mr. Willie Bayard, passed away Monday morning, Feb 4th, at her home near Garretts, Va., after an illness of several weeks with pneumonia. Rosa was a sweet and attracted all to her by her sweet amiable and bright ways. And one kind friends and love ones could do was done, and nothing was spared that she might be relieved. How we feel for her dear sister, father and step-mother who watched so faithfully by her bedside. How dark all seems to them, yet when the cloud is lifted all will be brighter for having passed through the darkness. God does all for our good—we can only be resigned to His will and feel that He knows best. Never again in this life will we greet her pleasant smiles nor hear her sweet voice, but oh, we trust we all will see her in the sweet fields of Eden where there will be no partings, no goodbyes, no sad farewells, but all will be bright and happy, no dark clouds will hover over us, no troubles will surround us there.

She was a consistent member of St. Andrews Baptist church. Funeral, February 5th, her body was laid to rest in the family burying ground at the home of her uncle, in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives.

A FRIEND.

Turnes--Agee.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season occurred at the home of Mr. A. E. Turnes on Tuesday last at 5 p. m., when his daughter, Miss Sarah became the bride of Mr. Charlie E. Agee. A beautiful arch was formed of Juniper, running cedar and roses, under which the happy couple stood while their pastor, Rev. J. B. Williams, Albert Thornhill. Rev. Mr. Allison conducted the services. She leaves six children to mourn their loss, namely Dr. L. R, Charley and A. B. Thornhill of Appomattox, Mr. Thomas Thornhill, of Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. D. A. Christian, of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. E. E James, of Greenville, S. C. They have the sympathy of a host of friends in his great bereavement, but they have only to remember that she has only gone before and is now reaping the reward of the faithful.

Mr. Alonza Wills is improving at this time. Mr. John Booker is also thought to be out of danger.

Miss Tempie Wells, of Lynchburg is visiting her parents this week.

Mr. Willis Woody, of Buckingham agent several days at the hospitable home of Mr. J. H. Wood last week.

The Bent Creek school is progressing nicely with Mrs. N. L Turner as teacher. Her old patrons are glad to have her teach for them again.

Messrs. T. H. Marks and J. N Phelps, of Lynchburg, made a flying visit to Appomattox last Sunday.

Stonewall.

As I have seen anything from this neighborhood for a long time, I thought a few items might be of interest to some.

Mr. Tom Wright, who bought the old An erson homestead, is a wide-awake farmer. He has a large family and has made quite an addition to our social circle.

Mr. Banks, who bought Mr. A. C. Sone's house has not moved yet.

Mr. Crawford Scruggs is contemplating ordering an outfit for the stave business and it is reported that Mr. Ed Owen & Bro. will move their saw mill to this neighborhood. So we have the prospect of quite a boom.

Mr S. E. Anderson is nicely fixed in his pretty new house and has still the building fever—has added a large stable, h n house, ice house and cow shed.

Neglected Colds Threaten Life.

"Don't trifle with a cold," is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry, warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the changes of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the ordinary light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well established pipe cold is to the gates of diphtheria what honey is to the bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is neglected cold. Whether it is a child or adult, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. The great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given.
